The Physician's Waiting-Room

[From the People's Magazine]

Physicians mend or end us,
Secundem artem—but although we sneer
In health—when sick we call them to attend us
Without the least propensity to jeer

Next to the "condemned cell," one is inclined to think there cannot be a more ominous halting place in the journey of life than that antechamber of death—the physician's waiting room It was once—and once only—my lot to spend a morning in that purgatorial atmosphere, and as I sat ensconced in a corner I let myself be insensibly carried away into a contemplation of the scene before me, and a speculation upon the various actors who made their entrances and their exits upon that grim and equivocal stage

It was an imposing mansion was that of the great Esculapius Silvertongue, M D (and perhaps not the only imposing thing there)

The doctor was "at home" to patients from 11 to 1, during four mornings in the week—for it will not do to make even physicians too accessible —and great was the crowd that thronged around that fashionable door I had no idea of the extent to which the gullible people of London could be duped, or I should have taken the wise precaution of calling early. As it was although I was there by midway between the two hours, I found the medical levee at its hight, and soon saw that I had very little chance of admission till the last moment, if then The butler who threw open the door with an obsequious bow, manifestly expected that those who fed his master would also 'tip' him, but I passed haughtily on, regardless of his efforts to establish a friendly understanding

Don't imagine, pray, dear reader, that I went to Dr Esculapius Silvertongue on my own score. Oh, dear, no! my visit was entirely vicarial, it was on behalf of a friend, residing abroad, who entertained an exalted opinion of his skill, and whose case I carried in black and white in my pocket book

The spacious entrance-hall of the doctor's was paved like a Roman tomb, with black and white marble, but there was grandeur in the massive balustraded stone staircase winding its wide carpeted steps up a well the walls of which were closely covered with large oil paintings. The portly functionary, though somewhat ruffled in her dignity, conducted me into a handsome dining room of noble proportions, and closed the door upon me with a self satisfied air which seemed to say, "one more victim trapped"

I could afford to laugh in my sleeve at his mistake, and I laughed accordingly, as I passed over the noiseless and conventional Turkey carpet, just as much worn and faded as Turkey carpets generally are, to a luxurious great morocco easy chair, into which I threw myself, determined at all events to make the most of the present time

The room was oppressively full, and the great majority of course were ladies. There is, I am disposed to think, after all, more credulity in the fair than in the—unfair sex, and the few men who were there seemed to feel themselves in a false position.

My footmanl [illegible] commanded the whole room, and gave a good view of the door, which was opened from time to time by Mr. Butler for the admission of fresh prisoners As each entered I remarked the same expression reflected on all their faces they looked anxiously [illegible], and their look said plainly as words, "Oh, dear me! what a crowd of people! Why, I shall be kept here all day" And then appeared to resign themselves, with the exception of one or two, who at once turned restive at the sight, and pursuing the gentleman usher as he was retiring, held a few moments' whispered conversation at the door, which generally resulted in their withdrawal Whether they were suffered to depart, or were shown to a reserved room, and there were smuggled privately into and—out of their turn, it is not for me to say; but I don't think they were allowed to a cape unfleeced.

We may learn a suggestive lesson in the study of human nature by observing who are the people who make fortunes in these days. They certainly are not to be found in the ranks of authors or artists, nor of men of genius, as such, for of course there is a certain kind of genius in hitting upon the method of making a fortune, and in adapting energies to the peculiar weakness of our fellow men, out of which money is to be made

Dr Esculapius Silvertongue had evidently struck the right cord in the human heart, and it was a golden string on which he played, for his devotees were scarcely less eager or less numerous than those who thronged the temples of fashion, and make milliners into millionaires

Yet this was a man whose first start in life was in a country village; whose stock in trade consisted of a few colored glass bottles; whose labelled drawers were shams, and whose shelves were stored with a beggarly account of empty boxes, who had been known to look, with hungry eye on the hospital dinners, and might even have longed for the crumbs which fell from the rich man's pontice!

The village apothecary, however, had discovered the immense value of a handsome face, a graceful figure, and a good address. He was gifted with a considerable acumen, and had found out the secrets of an [illegible] the vast advantage of possessing a sympathetic tone of voice and of assuming a dignified air—and he had studied to some purpose the matchless art knowing what the patient wishes the doctor would advise. Few ladies can resist the soft voiced "constitutional medical adviser," who assures them that "they do not need medicine, all they require is air, carriage exercise, and amusement, with generous diet, and [illegible] pague daily" Who would not gladly pay for such an opinion as this, and return again and again to hear it repeated? Frederick the Great was a sensible man, but his way to deal with the medical profession was singular It was his wont to pay his doctor a handsome salary as long as he and all his household were whole, and needed not a physician, but the doctor's pay was stopped from the moment any one fell ill until he was restored to health, and if he died he was discharged at once. This was logical, at all events, but it put away all the small talk of the consulting room. The apartment to which we were consigned was of the gloomiest aspect, depressing enough to make any poor wretch ill who was not so already and I began to think it within the bounds of possibility that even I, who came to scoff, might still remain to pay! The walls were hung with a dark crimson flock paper, and nearly covered with pictures of large pretensions, but dubious merit, in heavy gilt frames The chairs, too, were "gloomy and grand." On the heavy French polished mahogany dining table were strewn to day's, yesterday's and the day before yesterday's Times few middle aged novels in very greasy half-bindings, the last Illustrated News, some magazines of not very recent date, and, as if in the ghastly mockery of the circumstances which brought us there several late numbers, and some elderly volumes of Punch As for the late numbers, passe pour cela, there might be a congeniality there, but Punch when he was young and curly, when he really could crack a joke, and knew how to make even the "judicious laugh"—what business had he in the "chamber of horrors?"

I now gazed round on the living occupants whom a common infirmity had gathered here What was the history of each of these my fellow-beings, of whom I should never know anything more than this evanescent and unexplained episode It was at all events a curious and condensed representation of life They came—no one could say whence or wherefore—they remained, occupying or amusing themselves as best they might with the materials within their reach and then in the midst of it, when least expected appeared the pompous man in black, so suggestively like the minister of death beckoning in a solemn silence first to one and then to another—sometimes an individual, sometimes a couple sometimes a group—to follow him

In the window sat a young wife—a bride—for she and the youthful husband who sat beside her, gazing into her eyes with an anxiety fully justified by the tell tale flush upon her unusually lovely face, were in the very dawn of life Their happiness was evidently short lived, for, apparently, they had exhausted it already All the Esculapiuses in the world could not save her And the man knew it in his heart of hearts, though with that fond blindness with which we try to deceive ourselves about a fatal truth, he had come to purchase ocular words of hope from the oily lips of Dr Silvertongue, that he might have a straw to cling to while he was sinking It was a distressing sight, and I turned to the opposite side of the room, but it was only to light upon another, not less touching. An elderly man of gentle exterior, with snow white hair and beard, was accompanied by an interesting girl, evidently his daughter, for the features of both, which was extremely delicate and well formed, were marvelously similar She wore the deepest mourning, and on his hat, which stood on the table, was a wide hatband In the countenance of both could be read the mournful tale of long watchings, of hoverings between hope and fear, protracted anxiety, and recent bereavement. The old man's eyes were closed, and presently I discerned he was blind. Those of the girl were large and lustrous, and of deep blue, which, combined with raven-black hair, bespoke race, but they filled involuntarily with tears from time to time, and she clasped her father's hand in hers as if fearful lest she should lose him too, while he had hers, to make sure that she was near him, now that he could no longer see her As I looked sadly upon them, sharing unconsciously in the mournful detail of their griefs, the grim messengers appeared, and the young girl whispered in her blind father's ear, they rose, and she guided his steps with tender solicitude to the door. Alas! thought I, if they could but thus cross the threshold of life with simultaneous step! There was such clinging, mutual, loving dependence in their [illegible], that I could but ask myself how either would survive the other.

O, the soft commerce! O, the [illegible] ties,
Close twisted with the fibres of the heart!
Which broken, break them and drain off the soul
Of human joys, and make it pain to live
And is it then to live? When such friends part
'Tis the survivor dies

My eye traveled over the room, passing with natural indifference over several very commonplace individuals, who might also have had their histories, but there was no indication of any interest attached to their lives; and had they been asked, they would in all probability have only replied, with the "Needy Knife-Grinder"—

'Story! Lord bless you, sir, I've none to tell you."

There were one or two fashionable-looking, selfish, heartless women of the world, making the physician's waiting room a [illegible] stage, by way of variety, in their blasé existence Then there was a pretty faced girl, whose complexion had been destroyed by late hours and tight lacing and whose mamma began to fear she was a [illegible] for the husband market—a serious consideration for an unfortunate materfamilias who has six bony damsels, growing older and less charming every day, to dispose of Next to this interesting group was a widowed mother [illegible] with a[illegible] but in the weeds and crape which scarcely announce her loss more plainly than her sad young face, attended by a female domestic in black, on whose knee sat her fatherless boy, a [illegible], fair-haired, blue eyed child, fresh as only English children are, but with a [illegible] thoughtful expression on its infant brow; one of those children of whom old women are wont to predict, in whispers aside, that "he was not long for this world," and very often they are right.

A little apart, and making themselves the unenviable centre of attention of the room, sat two flippant young misses, whose social position it was difficult to determine; but after a [illegible] ing investigation I made up my mind that the better dressed of the two, whose attire, though slovenly in the extreme, was intended to be of the most recent fashion, was a young woman of the upper middle class, but most objectionably fast, and that her companion was either a poor relation, a humble friend, or perhaps a [illegible] maid. She wore a long silk dress [illegible] by a vestige of crinoline—indeed, it was [illegible] doubtful if there were anything beneath it—and as she held it up, after the fashion of a riding habit, she exhibited a somewhat [illegible] leather boot, with a very high heel, which made her gait rather unsteady, but served to draw notice to the foot, which was decidedly small and coquettishly chausse. Above the dress was a dark blue cloth jacket, open at the [illegible] [illegible] ing to its [illegible], and the whole was surmounted by a straw and [illegible] head-gear, which was neither a bonnet nor a hat. This [illegible] joined an unbroken concert, at the very top of her voice, with a girl she had brought with her, in which the word "[illegible]" [illegible] with extraordinary frequency, as well as [illegible] slang phrases, much interchanged with the loud and silly giggle accompanying it. The two employed themselves in turning over volume after volume of "Punch," and in passing [illegible] observations on them with a freedom that [illegible] to invite the participations of the other occupants of the room, but were more especially directed towards a young officer who was seated at the table, but who contrived to maintain a self possessed abstraction, and to pore over the book before him just as if the fast young lady had, never existed. It was a hopeless case of [illegible] labor, and no doubt she thought it "[illegible]," while I was as much amused at her [illegible]. At length the hand [illegible] young man was [illegible] to the consulting-room, and the young lady's [illegible] seemed to come to an end of the [illegible]; at all events the room assumed that [illegible] and respectable silence in which any number of Englanders are wont to sit when they have not been introduced to each other.

This, however, was the last study I was destined to make. My own turn soon came, and I thought, but it might be fancy, that I observed a malignant smile playing round the lips of that dignified official as he signed to me that I was wanted. So thus ended my experience of a physician's ante room. Strange to say I had become so interested in the little drama, that the call brought with it something like a feeling of annoyance, and much as I had at first repined at my incarceration, when it came thus abruptly to a close

Regained my freedom with a sigh.

The Power of it

All the talk of the Democratic party against allowing the negro to vote amounts simply to this The negro will not vote their ticket. All remember that last spring when the negroes of the South were given the ballot, the Democratic party went almost wild with joy, the [illegible] were sure to vote their ticket, they had been the only friends of the colored race, and the "Radicals" by enfranchising the blacks had put a weapon in their hands which would be most effectual to beat out "Radical" brains The Democratic party everywhere began to cajole with the negroes for their votes, and every means which demagogues could use were employed to win them over It was only after they had discovered that the blacks would not vote as their former masters dictated, and as Northern Copperheads hoped, that their absolute unfitness was discovered. These are facts which are of too recent occurrence to be denied. The Philadelphia Press puts the case very [illegible] tly and forcibly when it says

"How many of those who allow themselves to be controlled by the degrading prejudice against the colored race have ever given ordinary weight to the fact that if the negroes were willing to vote with the Copperheads and traitors they would cease to be the objects of ridicule and abuse? In that case you would hear no prophecies of social equality, no angry protests against black men and women riding in the city cars, no loud clamors for "a white man's party." It is only when a race heretofore asserted to be ignorant beyond redemption, show themselves intelligent enough to prefer their friends to their foes, that they are marked out for measureless proscription. The rebels since the elections in Virginia, Alabama, and Louisiana exhibit a ferocity to the negroes hard to reconcile with the fact that they had just been begging them to support the rebel candidates for delegates to the new convention, and have lived with them since childhood."

Warm Springs Indian R[illegible]

[From the Mount [illegible]]

DECEMBER 13th, 1867.

This Reservation is situate in Wasco County, Oregon, and about seventy-five miles from Dalles City, Oregon, and derives its name from a number of warm springs situate about the [illegible] of this Agency, and some eight miles from the Agency building. These springs have been [illegible] with great [illegible] by the Post Surgeon in the cure of chronic skin diseases, and at some not very distant period I am confident they will be much sought by the afflicted.

The boundaries of this reservation [illegible] in the Deschutes river at the base of the range of mountains known as Walton Mountains, [illegible] westerly along the summit of the mountain to the Cascade range, thence along the [illegible] of said mountains to Mount Jefferson, then down a branch of the Deschutes river, known as Matolia's river to the Deschutes river, thence down the Deschutes to the place of beginning. The greater portion of this Agency is composed of high, barren, rocky table land, and unfit for [illegible], although grass abounds plentifully.

The Indians have improved land [illegible] and Dry Creeks, immediately adjoining the Agency buildings, also a few farms [illegible] upon lands lying [illegible] Warm [illegible] Deschutes rivers, making in all [illegible] acres of land at the present time [illegible] tion. The names of the Indians now [illegible] the reservation are the [illegible] or Warm Springs Indians, Tenino, Dog [illegible], John Day's and Wascoes. Although the [illegible] bone or Snakes lived here for some time after the treaty had been made, but [illegible] and concluding to go to war, [illegible] hundred head of horses, and [illegible] that time [illegible] history has been and is being written in [illegible], and is unnecessary for me to [illegible]. Of all the Indians upon this [illegible] the land in civilization. Their [illegible] and barns, woodsheds, fences, (at [illegible]) with irrigating ditches where required, with their large fields of wheat, oats and [illegible], and [illegible] convinces the skeptical that [illegible] are not too indolent to work, and where they are [illegible] can live as comfortably and [illegible] as [illegible] Webfoot brethren [illegible] the [illegible] live well [illegible] pork, [illegible] and all [illegible] den products that can be [illegible] in any [illegible] and the Sweet water [illegible] have, ever [illegible] around [illegible] here.

The Warm Springs or D[illegible] [illegible] very hard to give up their old manner of getting a living by their [illegible], and [illegible] to the [illegible] and [illegible] they have [illegible] ing. As the [illegible] brethren will not bear that, they seek [illegible] at their old hunting grounds.

As year [illegible] probably [illegible] company at the [illegible] sent out after their own and [illegible] Snakes. In their first [illegible] rived they met the foe, [illegible] ing in thirty six [illegible] equipage [illegible] the [illegible] had. Again this [illegible] had put in [illegible] they [illegible] a new [illegible] and [illegible] dren. Having [illegible] but own that this is [illegible] only the [illegible] at [illegible] the [illegible] but [illegible] them all the [illegible] for the last four years.

These scouts have been [illegible] and are now preparing for a [illegible] they may [illegible] river, where but one year ago, [illegible] of the Snakes, now [illegible] self by magic, [illegible] temporary [illegible] fort [illegible] place [illegible] who but a few [illegible] Willamette valley, [illegible] exterminating [illegible] and the [illegible] that [illegible] Pacific [illegible], and [illegible] wealth, [illegible] And now these untiring [illegible] seem [illegible] too near the [illegible] partly [illegible] and are now [illegible] ing at the beginning and have [illegible] several valleys.

The Two Parties.

There are those who profess to believe that the Republican party has finished its mission, and that no work remains for it to do. Such greatly err. That party has indeed, by abolishing slavery, completed one great work; but a great principle is still at stake which it is the duty of that party to uphold. This principle is nothing less than that on which the Government itself is founded, viz: The maintenance of the national authority against the Democratic interpretation of State rights, which makes State authority superior to that of the Government of the Union. In other words, it devolves on the Republican party to maintain the doctrine that the National Government is the paramount Government of the country. This was the issue on which the war was fought, and the defeated party are now trying to [illegible] the verdict. It is in this way that the Union party is now called on to maintain at the [illegible] the principles which it upheld with [illegible] from the attack on Sumter to the surrender at Appomattox.

The [illegible] of the war was a vindication of the [illegible] of Washington, Hamilton, Jay, Marshall and Henry, against the principles and teachings of Jefferson and the Resolutions of 1798. It was a verdict in favor of the principles on which the Constitution was framed and adopted, and on which the Government was [illegible] during the first years of its existence. It was a verdict against the dogmas of State rights, State sovereignty, etc., which were used to bring the Democratic party into existence and which were revived during the administration of [illegible] and employed to justify a dissolution of the Union. It is true that Jefferson and his [illegible] did not put these principles into practice; they rode into power on this [illegible] and then partially abandoned it; and Gen. Jackson distinctly and emphatically repudiated it in [illegible] with South Carolina in 1832. But it is [illegible] that in 1856 the Democratic party went back to the anarchical principles of the [illegible] that it incorporated [illegible] in its national platform; that [illegible] of this platform (though [illegible] people approved it, but because [illegible] by the [illegible] weight of the [illegible]; that the Southern con[illegible] by the very principles [illegible] the Democratic party had thus enunciated; [illegible] President Buchanan [illegible] that he had no lawful [illegible] and that the Government had no constitutional right to resort to force to [illegible] itself from destruction; [illegible] Democratic party during the whole struggle [illegible] all war measures on the [illegible] the National Government had no [illegible] a State," and that, under the application of Democratic principles, there was [illegible] left but to acquiesce in the disruption of the Union. These are facts which have passed into history. The question now is, whether these [illegible] be revived and carried into the administration of the Government, or whether the [illegible] which has been upheld by the Union party at [illegible] and our brave soldiers on the battle field [illegible] hereafter prevail; [illegible] we will have the [illegible] of Washington [illegible] and Daniel Webster, as expounders of the principles of this Government, or whether we are to go back to that digest of [illegible] which is presented in the Resolutions of 1798 and which the Democratic party [illegible] to install, in an insidious way, as [illegible] nullifying [illegible] controlling power in our politics. [illegible] one gigantic rebellion [illegible] three or four years, as the result of Democratic principles. The Southern Confederacy [illegible] lawful authority, was only Democracy [illegible]. It was simply carrying [illegible] to their logical and inevitable [illegible]. The Northern Democracy stopped [illegible] short of the position which their Southern brethren assumed. The latter [illegible] and the former denied the right of the Government to take arms against them. This was the only difference between [illegible], and this difference was a coincidence [illegible] Democracy used the principles of that party to justify the right and vindicate the [illegible], the Northern Democrats used the [illegible] to show that coercion [illegible], and thus they stood on a common platform. It is this construction of the relative powers of the States and of the General Government [illegible] they are now laboring to re-establish. They are working covertly, it is true, not daring yet to own their actual purposes; but this, nevertheless, is the issue. The Republican party [illegible] still has a work to do. It is the champion of the supremacy of the National Government, and therefore it is the champion of the [illegible]. The Democratic party believes in State sovereignty, and therefore holds principles on which it is impossible for any Government to be maintained.

SOME OF THE "JOURNEYMAN EDITOR'S WORK."—The Capital Chronicle says:

[illegible] the [illegible] of South Carolina are [illegible] the Irish and Germans of New York City.

We don't believe the OREGONIAN ever said so.—[illegible] Register.

Of course the OREGONIAN never said so. That lie was created by the disreputable "journeyman editor" who finds temporary employment on the Herald. The same falsehood has been copied by [illegible] papers in the State. The OREGONIAN is not so bigoted or intolerant as to believe that a man's worth is to be judged by his name, race, birth or place of nativity; and not a line has been printed in this paper which will bear any such interpretation. We leave that employment to Copperhead papers, which by continually coining falsehoods to prove that the Republican party thinks "Irish and Dutch lower than niggers," show as plainly as can be that they [illegible] consider our foreign population as a class inferior to American born citizens. Else, why are they perpetually comparing the "Irish and Dutch" with "niggers," instead of with white citizens born on our own soil? We did say that the negroes of South Carolina are better qualified to exercise the elective franchise than tens of thousands of ignorant and vicious persons who are annually raked up from "the dens of vice and purlieus of infamy" in New York City to vote the Democratic ticket, but we made no more reference to Irish or German voters than to those of American birth.

STATE ITEMS.

A railroad meeting was called at Jacksonville to be held on the 21st inst.

During the late storms, rain to the amount of 29 8-10 inches fell at the garrison at the Dalles.

A steam tug has recently arrived at the Umpqua from San Francisco to facilitate the navigation of the Umpqua bar.

During the late rains the Klickatat rose to tremendous proportions, the current being so strong as to cross almost the entire width of the Columbia.

The Guard says Messrs. Osburn have packed some 40,000 pounds of pork at Eugene City, and Scott & Dunn have packed about 40,000 pounds.

The Herald says that the Southern people "did set up and maintain an independent Government until they were vanquished by arms," which the Sentinel notices thus: Why, how's that granny—we thought they were "always in the Union."

The Dalles paper says: Owing to the bad condition of the roads, the trade with the interior has closed. So far this fall a good business has been done, and our merchants generally appear to be well pleased with the past season and also with the present state of the retail trade.

A letter from Roseburg says: The two branches of the Methodist church and the Baptist have united, and have held meeting night and day for the last six weeks at the Methodist church in town. A number of converts have been made, and last Sunday six persons were baptised by Elder Stephens.

The Record of Friday says: We saw at the wharf, yesterday, waiting opportunity for shipment, ten large rolls of leather, measuring three tons, from the tannery of Messrs. Wadkins & Co., marked for Main & Winchester, San Francisco. Five or six years ago, when this tannery was owned by Clark & Helman, its leather used to command a higher rate than any other sold by the San Francisco house above named, and no doubt does so still.

The village of Silverton in Marion county, says the Enterprise, is keeping pace with more pretentious places in the matter of public spirit. It claims one of the best schools in the State, numbering over one hundred pupils under the charge of Prof. Hunt. The school building cost about $5,000. The hotel is kept by Mr. Philip Sowers, and is a neat and comfortable place. The merchants are all doing a good business, and, upon the whole, Silverton is a model village.

A preacher named McAllister who became somewhat known in this part of the State a year or two ago, has "turned up" in Southern Oregon. A letter from Roseburg to the Sentinel says of him: A new sect called "Nazarines" have sprung up at Canyonville, under the influence of Elder McAllister. Six or seven converts to that faith were baptized near the mouth of Canyon creek a few days ago, with a fair prospect of many others following their example.

The Mountaineer says: We noticed a petition going the round the middle of this week, signed by nearly all our principal business men, asking the Postmaster-General for a tri-weekly mail route to Boise City via Canyon City. Now that the Indians have been driven from this route, there is no longer any excuse for not putting this line in operation. The drive can be made in the summer season in from fifty to sixty hours, which will make the time at least one day shorter than by the present route. We hope our members in Congress will lend what aid they can in the furtherance of this enterprise.

Letter from Sacramento.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 12th, 1867.

THE CITY.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

This city is perhaps in a more thriving condition than ever before. The improvements that are going on all over the city are of the most substantial character. New buildings are continually going up and old wooden ones are being pulled down and structures reared in their stead that do credit to the "City of the Plains." It has a bright future before it; and a few more years of prosperity will "build Sacramento" upon an enduring basis that neither fire nor floods can affect. The streets are being rapidly raised to a level with the levee and the buildings also raised to the same hight. The vigor and earnestness with which the Sacramentans go about these things evinces a determination to wipe out stigmas which have hitherto been heaped upon her. It is not at all likely that another flood will again environ her limits.

But it is not only the city that is thriving, but the country at large. The three last years having been favorable for the farming interests and the opening of foreign markets for our produce, causing a good demand and fair prices, have given a stimulus to business of every description and the old stereotyped phases of "hard times," "money scarce," etc., are growing obsolete. I have not heard those phrases used in the last three years. A new era seems to be dawning on California—it is the era of railways. As the "iron steed" begins to snort over our beautiful and fertile valleys, and across the eternally snow capped Sierras, and as different tracks are being rapidly laid for his iron feet, it is soon felt in the rise in valuation of real estate. And it is to be hoped that an early completion of the Oregon branch will be effected, that she, too, may have her share of the golden harvest so near at hand.

THE LEGISLATURE.

The seventh session of the Legislature of California convened last Monday and was soon organized. The "dimocrats" have a majority of twenty in the House, but in the Senate there is a Union majority of three, so that we feel pretty easy, so long as they prove true, and we have implicit confidence in the willingness and ability to hold the Democrats steady and prevent any action on the part of the House which would not coincide with the sentiments of the Union party of the State.

Of course we are to have a Democratic Senator, the Democrats having a majority of seventeen on joint ballot. Such an event is to greatly deplored by Union men everywhere, and if our party leaders will but drink deep at the fount of experience and read in the result of our late elections the "hand-writing on the wall," read the verdict of a deeply wronged and outraged people—a verdict as plain as though written in characters of living light, that the people have interests that must be guarded; wishes that must not be ignored and rights that shall not be trampled under foot with impunity, and that it was to this end that twenty thousand voters stayed away from the polls—Union voters—I say Union voters because it is the only reasonable conclusion any one can arrive at who is at all conversant with the facts—all will yet be well. To suppose half, or any considerable number of them, were Democrats would be to suppose a very absurd thing, for who ever heard of a Democrat staying away from the polls when he could get there. I ventured to say that there was not an instance of the kind in this State, and the Democratic bluster about "revolutionizing California" it all bosh. Of course they did all they could to divide the party, so aid in securing the nomination of obnoxious candidates in the Union party, and they cannot be blamed for it, but that is the sum and substance of their "revolutionizing" this State.

It is now high time that the Union party of California and elsewhere was preparing for the coming contest—cutting loose side issues and dead weights that have carried it down here and in other places.

Olympia Correspondence.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Since my last but few items of general interest have occurred in connection with the Legislature. The two bodies met in Joint Convention on the tenth to receive the message of His Honor Governor Moore. The document was a long and able one, somewhat eulogistic of the Territory, and setting forth many of its advantages and the inducements it holds out to emigration. It was well received by the Legislature and twenty-five hundred copies were ordered printed; and, by the way, speaking of the Governor, I may say that he comes before us with some military celebrity, having commanded a brigade during a considerable part of the war. He was very badly wounded in the assault on Mission Ridge, where he led his brigade, and brought several honorable scars from the field of strife. He comes here not as a mere office seeking adventurer, but as a permanent citizen of the Territory.

To-day a memorial passed both houses, under a suspension of the rules, asking Congress to appropriate one hundred thousand dollars towards a mail service from San Francisco to Olympia direct by sea. No bills of general interest have been passed.

The steamship California, Capt. Winsor, direct from San Francisco, reached this place last evening with passengers and freight. She will clear for the same port at three o'clock A. M. to-morrow.

Last night we had a regular thunder storm—one that reminded us of our boyhood, when the old hills of New York used to rock with the discharges of heaven's artillery. It seemed a little out of place away out here, and at this time of the year. The heaviest rain of the season accompanied the thunder.

The Supreme Court is in session. Judges Hewitt, Wyche and Darwin, and most of the Attorneys of the Territory, are in attendance.

CHIEL.

The "journeyman editor" argues that the success or failure of a newspaper depends entirely on the personal character of its editor. Rather a severe reflection on his own personal character, since he has been trying for more thirty years in various places to build up a successful and influential newspaper, and has never yet succeeded. Poor old Berish should remember that there is no law in any country which requires a man to confess against himself.

New Orleans is ten miles long, following the curves of the Mississippi.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Heavy Snow Storm at Yreka.

YREKA, Dec. 21.—It has been storming here almost without cessation for the past ten days, and is now snowing heavily. Snow on Scott Mountain has fallen to a considerable depth, but up to last night the mails had succeeded in getting over. To-day our telegraphic communication is cut off south of Callahan's, and we are unable to say whether the Scott Mountain road is still open yet or not.

Later.

YREKA, Dec. 21.—The storm still continues. The snow is now two to five feet deep on Scott Mountain, and four feet deep in Trinity valley. The stage from the south did not get over the mountain to day.

FROM THE NORTH.

SEATTLE, Dec. 18.—The heavy and continuous rains the past week caused the streams in this vicinity to overflow. Large amounts of property of all kinds, including bridges, fences and several buildings carried away. A considerable amount of stock has been drowned. The telegraph line was severely damaged, but has been repaired and is in good working order from the Cowlitz river to Victoria and Fort Hope. White river was several feet higher than ever before known. The rise on Sunday night was so sudden and unexpected that many families only with great difficulty saved their lives by climbing upon hay stacks and into trees. Some did not even have sufficient warning to dress themselves. Many suffered from cold and exposure to rain, with nothing but their night clothes to protect them until picked up by steamers and boats from town. No lives lost as far as heard from.

RECREATION AND AMUSEMENT.—It is necessary that mortals should have some amusement, and since our city is not blessed with an elegant theatre, or some place of innocent amusement, it is the duty of every man to see that his acquaintances coming to our city should at least be pleased, and how can you please them better than by taking them to KOHN & FISHEL'S, No. 91 Front street, to buy one of those handsome suits they keep for sale.

Buchtel's Photograph Gallery is the only establishment in Oregon that is thoroughly prepared to do all the different styles of work in the art. Photographs from card to life size. The new cabinet cards, &c., &c. Small pictures enlarged (retouched in India ink—painted in water-colors or oil by Mrs. S. J. Rumsey. Pictures that are fading can be reproduced in this way. All negatives taken in this gallery will be carefully preserved, and additional copies had. I have now on hand a very large collection of negatives, the names of which are recorded alphabetically in a book for that purpose that can be seen in the reception room.

SPERMATORRHŒA.

DR. DOHERTY has just published an important pamphlet, embodying his own views and experiences in relation to Impotence or Virility: being a Short Treatise on Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Nervous and Physical Debility consequent on this affection, and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs.

GLORIOUS NEWS FOR THE MILLION

ANNUAL GRAND OPENING

OF

SANTA CLAUS' BUDGET!

BOOK STORE!!

WHERE MY

HEAD-QUARTERS

HAVE BEEN ESTABLISHED

For the Past Six Years,

and where

I WILL HOLD MY ANNUAL CARNIVAL

DURING THE COMING HOLIDAYS!

MY BUDGET FOR THIS SEASON

COMPRISES

THE LARGEST STOCK!

with

THE HANDSOMEST GOODS!!

and

The Cheapest Prices!

AND THAT ALL MAY OBSERVE

The Christmas and New Years'

HOLIDAYS!

I herewith issue my Annual

PROCLAMATION!!!

I've come, my dear people, among you once more,
Keeping up the good custom established of yore
I bid you all welcome! I wish you good cheer
A right merry Christmas and Happy New Year!
You will find me this year, as you have heretofore,
At McCormick's, on Front street—the Franklin Book Store
Where I've opened my Budget—'twas filled to the brim
With every nice Toy that could talk, walk or swim.
I've Musical Work Boxes—and Guitars for the fair
And Gifts for the Gents that are both rich and rare,
Whilst my Budget includes the nicest new Toys
Intended as Gifts to good Girls and Boys!
I've the Ark in which Grandfather Noah was kept
When all other creatures from the world were swept,
(For men in those days would in evil persist,
So the world was washed by an Oregon mist!)
I've Babies of Rubber, of wax and of leather,
(They were all made to order), and well put together;
I've Vases and Cups nicely gilded outside,
And little Cock Horses for Bobbies to ride;
I've Cannon and Pistols which cannot explode,
For the reason they hold neither wadding or load.
I've steamboats that run—you just wind them in front
And they'll beat the Cascade or the Wilson G. Hunt.
I've a new Locomotive—It can never explode,
'Twas built for the use of Gaston's Railroad,
I've Engines that play—Set them down on the floor
And they'll throw greater streams than old '2' or new '4.'
I've Furniture, Fiddles, and French Furlbers,
Soldiers that look like S. B. Pioneers.
I've Swords made of tin—Guns and Pistols as well,
And the new kind of Drum that rings like a bell.
I've Masks of all sizes—I've Grace Hoops, galore,
And you'll find at McCORMICK'S a thousand Toys more,
On FRONT STREET the Store is—105,
Where TOYS are as plenty as bees in a hive;
Go there and buy them—this is my request,
His Prices are Low and his Stock is the Best.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—We clip the following from the Vancouver Register: We are indebted to the Hospital Steward, Mr. John Quinn, at this post, for a statement, from which it appears that water fell to the depth of ten inches and seven hundredths during the heavy rains of last week. These rains appear to have been general and the consequences in this county are quite disastrous. We are perhaps not fully advised as to the extent of damage done in this county and in other localities; but such information as we have and think will be of general interest, we give. The damage done in this county, except on Lewis river, so far as we know, consists in the washing away of bridges and mill property. The bridges on Washougal, Lackamas and Salmon creeks, we understand, are all gone. There are several mills on Salmon creek, all of which, we hear, have suffered more or less. The damage to Mr. Leiser is only a very slight disturbance of the dam. Patterson's dam is entirely washed out. But Mr. Marble has suffered the most. His dam is swept away and with it his saw mill entire. His grist mill is standing. His loss is about $1,500. We understand it is his intention to rebuild in the spring......On the 14th [illegible] complaint was made by Dr. H. C. Westfall, of Yamhill county, Oregon, charging Chas. Starr with larceny of a horse, in November last, by virtue of which Starr was arrested, and the horse, which was caught in this county, was taken possession of by the sheriff, when on investigation, it was developed that the horse was [illegible] to have been won in a horse race, and the stakeholder refusing to deliver the same, Starr in the night time ran the horse off, and finally to this county. Complainant paid costs and took the horse, intending to prefer a criminal charge in Oregon rather than await a requisition, the [illegible] being dismissed......Mrs. Marble, on the [illegible] of the 16th inst., in stepping on a frosty plank arranged for getting over a fence, slipped and fell, unfortunately breaking her arm. Dr. Toby attended the sufferer. Troubles seem to never come one at a time, for just previously the flood had swept away the saw mill and dam belonging to Mr. Marble, causing a loss to him of about $1,500 ...The following are the officers recently elected by Vancouver Fire Engine Co.: H. G. Struve, Pr[illegible]; C. Wintler, Foreman; R. Glover, 1st Assistant; E. O'Keane, 2d Assistant; D. Leahy, Secretary; J. F. [illegible], T[illegible].

[illegible] COURT—UPTON, JUDGE.—The following are the [illegible] in the Circuit Court Saturday, the 21st:

[illegible] & Strauss vs. Spedon & Cyrus Olney. Action at law. Judg[illegible] on answer against Olney for $475 40. Logan for Plaintiff; Olney for self.

D. H. Hannah et al vs C. S. Silver, Adm'r de bonis non of estate of F. Carothers. Petition for an order to require the Administrator to turn over the property to said Hannah et al. Appeal from County Court, wherein judgment was entered [illegible] said petition and refusing to make such order; judgment aff[illegible], costs against petitioners. [illegible] & Kelly for plaintiffs; Mitchell, Dolph & Smith for [illegible].

A. M. Stearns vs. N. H. Stearns. Plaintiff granted a divorce from said [illegible] and allowed to [illegible] her maiden name [illegible].

OUR ITEMS.—The [illegible] of Saturday has [illegible] Clackamas [illegible], held on Thursday evening last, W. C. [illegible] were elected [illegible] to attend [illegible] Convention at Portland on the [illegible] ......The [illegible] of this State Convention is to elect delegates to [illegible] Ball Players...... We [illegible] at Washington Hall the other day, where [illegible] Booth [illegible] and were surprised at the extent and [illegible] of the improvements [illegible] completed. [illegible] of a large [illegible]. It is [illegible] that the [illegible] will be able to [illegible]......The [illegible] of the Old [illegible], was delivered at the Court House on Thursday evening last, by Rev. C. C. [illegible], of Portland.......The third lecture will be delivered [illegible] subject, "Henry the Eighth and his [illegible]"......Pudding river is slow but sure; [illegible] so that it is sure to be, and when it does rise it generally keeps up long [illegible]. We learn that on [illegible] last it was still so high that [illegible] was unable [illegible] the [illegible] at Aurora, and the mails were [illegible] in a boat......We learn that the [illegible] end of the Molalla bridge was [illegible] away [illegible] the high water last week, and that the road is [illegible]......We learn that the [illegible] Oregon City, [illegible] the high water, and was left high and dry by the flood. It is thought doubtful if she will be able to get off till the water [illegible] again.

[illegible] writing us from [illegible] Mag, on the 16th, giving an account of the flood and the damage done by it. This [illegible] is the first [illegible] by mail from [illegible] since the high water. The writer says: "The river is [illegible] there every [illegible] here, and Mr. [illegible], a Frenchman, says he has lived here 30 [illegible] all off from three farms on the opposite side of the [illegible] supply of provisions. The unfortunate men's [illegible] as near as can be ascertained at this time. [illegible] Edward Collinswith, $1,600; Simon Gill, $[illegible]. The water only lacked a few [illegible] into the barn [illegible]. The water [illegible] who came up on the Cowlitz, Saturday [illegible] away [illegible] below. The store and hotel went [illegible] about [illegible] the mouth of the [illegible] slipped about six [illegible] below and the Good Templars' lodge [illegible] probably was more used to the water than the others and so went further. The steamer Rainier started up the Cowlitz [illegible] for the first time since the flood.

THE FR[illegible] OF THE INDIAN WAR.—A correspondent of the Owyhee Avalanche, writing from San Francisco, Nov. 25th, says: "I see some of the papers are [illegible] to think that Gen. Crook was not so much de[illegible] as they seem to almost insist on. They at least very gladly copy a paragraph from the Idaho World to that effect. You can just bet your life it will be a bad case of Indians, when Gen. Crook won't hold his [illegible] 'and more too.' I have had a short 'talk' with Gen. Halleck, and am fully convinced that he has no [illegible] for Lo, the poor Indian, and that [illegible] have no fear of [illegible] to that [illegible], or lack of [illegible] for a vigorous prosecution of the [illegible] from [illegible] quarters."

[illegible] ELECTION.—On the 13th, the following officers [illegible] elected in Dalles Chapter No. 6, Royal Arch Masons, for the ensuing year: A. W. Fer[illegible], H. P.; A. W. [illegible], K.; Jonas Whitney, S.; O. S. Savage, C. H.; [illegible] P. S.; [illegible] Harding, R. A. C.; S. Pope, M. 3d V.; C. N. McFarland, M. 2d V.; O. H[illegible], M. 1st V.; O. S. Savage, Treasurer; E. L. Perham, Secretary; Jas. B. C[illegible], Sent......The following are the officers of Was[illegible] Lodge (Dalles) for the ensuing year: O. S. Savage, W. M.; C. N. McFarland, S. W.; F. Dehm, Treasurer; G. H. K[illegible], Secretary; J. P. Cook, Tyler.

[illegible] TO THE RANGER.—Last Thursday, just after the steamer Ranger, Captain Fisher, left [illegible], on the Cowlitz river, one of her cranks broke suddenly, by [illegible] other damage was also done. Both of the cylinder heads on that side were busted out, the cross head was broken and the piston was thrown overboard and lost. After the accident, the steamer made her way to this city with only one engine. She is now laid up at Vaughn's wharf for repairs and will probably not be [illegible] to run in less than ten days or two weeks, and [illegible] a longer time.

[illegible]—It is stated that $60,000 cash has been [illegible] in this city to the stock of the Oregon Central Railroad. The agent here says the surveyors have [illegible] McMinnville, reporting the distance fifty-six [illegible]. Within that distance, exist all the serious obstacles of the route, so far as the "lay of the land" is concerned.

PRODUCE.—Arrived Saturday, Dec. 21st, 2,382 qr sks flour, 19 hlf bbls and 28 boxes miscellaneous produce, 14 [illegible] bacon, 27 boxes eggs, 12 cases lard, 22 boxes butter, 79 slaughtered hogs, 5 pigs, 3 pkgs furs, 12 sks fruit, 10 bundles hoops, 160 sks feed, 6 coops chickens, 5 rolls leather, 1 bbl dried fruit.

GOOD TEMPLARS' CHRISTMAS TREE.—We are requested to state that the committee of the Good Templars to receive presents to be hung on their Christmas tree, will be in attendance on Tuesday at the hall. Articles should be [illegible] to them on that day before six o'clock P. M.

FROM ASTORIA.—The steamer Couch, from Astoria, Saturday, reports that the barks Falkinburg and Occident and the schooner Champion went out across the bar on Wednesday. The Oriflamme went to sea Friday about noon.

ARRIVAL OF IMMIGRANTS.—On Saturday, two families numbering about a dozen persons, who had crossed the plains this year, from Minnesota, arrived here by the Hunt.

THE NEXT STEAMER.—The telegraph operator informs us that the steamship Montana left San Francisco for Portland last Thursday evening.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF IDAHO—BOISE CITY, I. T.—Organized March 11th, 1867, (with circulation,) under Act of Congress, approved June 3d, 1864. Authorized capital $500,000. Paid up capital, $100,000. B. M. DuRell, President. C. W. Moore, Cashier. Collections of Notes and Accounts on the principal places in Idaho Territory promptly attended to. Exchange for Coin or Currency on this Bank can be purchased of Ladd & Tilton, Portland, Oregon.

STATE ITEMS.

On last Sunday, says the Corvallis Gazette, the new edifice of the Evangelical Association, in this city, was formally dedicated by Rev. C. F. Deininger, of Salem. Notwithstanding the storm prevailing at the time, the house was filled by an appreciative and attentive audience. Text: Psalm, lxxxiv, 1-2 verses. The sermon was well received, and evinced clear thought and careful study on the part of the speaker. The society own three lots 50x100 feet, across the street south from the court-house square. The house is 30x46 feet 18 feet story. The outside is plain, but neat, painted white, no spire. The inside finish displays considerable taste. The ceiling is slightly arched, painted white; the walls are covered with grained paper, representing oak. The aisles, and the platform upon which the pulpit rests, are carpeted. Two nice chandeliers are suspended from the ceiling, and a lamp on either side of the pulpit, rests on brackets. The collection, by subscription and cash, amounted to two hundred and fifty-seven dollars. Rev. James Crossman is pastor. This is the fourth church in this place, viz: Presbyterian, Evangelical, Methodist and Catholic; and besides, religious services are held occasionally at the court house, a school house in upper town and regularly at the College, by the Southern Methodists.

The Corvallis Gazette says: For some months past a number of our citizens have been "talking" about building a flouring mill. A subscription, we believe, was circulated and several thousand dollars subscribed, with certain provisos. Wonder if the provisos have caused the demise of the scheme? No point in the State, perhaps, is more favorably located than this, for such an enterprise. Notwithstanding shipments already made, our warehouses groan under the weight of thousands of bushels of wheat, which might be converted into flour and shipped at much less expense than the wheat could be.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE LADIES.—Just received, per steamer Oriflamme, a splendid lot of the most elegant Furs ever brought to this place. Also, some beautiful Velvet Cloaks, and several other articles suitable for Christmas presents. For particulars, call on Mrs. C. Levy, 89 First street.

CAPITOL, OLYMPIA, Dec. 11th, 1867.

DR. GROSS, Portland—Sir: I have been in the habit of using the "HENLEY ROYAL BALSAM" in my family, who reside at Wallula, Walla Walla county, W. T. I am now at Olympia, attending the present session of the Legislature, and the climate is so different from that of Walla Walla county that I have taken cold, and I have endeavored to purchase some of the medicine here but was unable to do so. Please send a bottle up immediately by mail. I have used nothing else in my family and cannot get along without it. Yours truly,

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER.

THE UNIVERSAL REMEDY FOR INTERNAL AND EXTERNAL COMPLAINTS!

At this period there are but few of the human race unacquainted with the merits of the Pain Killer; but while some extol it as a liniment, they know but little of its power in easing pain when taken internally; while others use it internally with great success, but are equally ignorant of its healing virtues when applied externally. We therefore wish to say to all that it is equally successful whether used internally or externally, and it stands alone, unrivalled by all the great catalogue of Family Medicines, and its sale is universal and immense. The demand for it from India and other foreign countries is equal to the demand at home, and it has become known in these far off places by its merits.

Just Cause for being Alarmed.—When a Cough has been running for a long time, and you begin to feel a pain setting in upon your lungs, attended with tightness across the chest, it is high time that you should awaken to the danger of your disease, which is fast running into Consumption. Now, before it is too late, use ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM, which will cure the disease, and all will be well with you. For sale by the Dealers in Family Medicines generally.

HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!

A Pure and Powerful Tonic,

Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.

PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES

Prevents Fever and Ague and [illegible] Remittent Fevers. Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water; Invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels; Steadies the Nerves and [illegible] to Prolong Life.

REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.

Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, C[illegible], Intermittent Fevers, [illegible] Cramps and Spasms, and all [illegible] arising from Bodily Weakness, [illegible] in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CA[illegible].

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, [illegible] the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical [illegible]; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare [illegible] and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works [illegible] in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less [illegible] forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless [illegible], as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The [illegible] on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a [illegible] HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the [illegible] influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re[illegible] and re[illegible] them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and [illegible] of the day.

THE NOVEMBER ELECTIONS—HOW THE RESULT AFFECTED THE FAITHFUL IN KENTUCKY.

POST OFFIS, CONFEDRIT X ROADS, }
(Wich is in the State uv Kentucky,) }
November, 16, 1867. }

The Corners wuz prostrated with joy last nite at the receipt uv the news uv the November elecshuns. Ther wuz nothin demonstrative about our joy ez there hed bin on occasions uv less interest. No! the rusult wuz too great, too overwhelmingly great. Our nachers wuz filled with joy and it bubbled up to the eyes, and slopt over in floods uv teers. Deekin Pogram's dawter Mirrandy borrored a tamborine, wich wood answer for a timbrel, and attempted to dance down the street, after the fashion uv Miriam, singin, "Shout the glad tidens," etsettry, but we rebookt her. Sich exultashen seemed to us inadekate. The Deekin met me and fallin onto my neck, wept perfoosly down my back, wich I stood ez long ez I cood bear the moistyer. Gently disengagin him, I led him to Bascom's, fearin that so great a waste uv flooids wood cut short the old saint's life, unless the waste cood be repaired. We supplied the deficiency to wunst. Never saw I sich a picter. The blessid old man settin onto a bench, a glass uv hot whisky in his hand; his white hair fallin scantily about his temples, and teers a runnin in rapid succession adown his frost-bitten nose, and, glitterin a moment on the tip, droppin like strings uv pearls into the space below. It wuz tetchin!

The citizens met that evenin, not to rejoice, but to adop sich meshers for turnin the vicktory to ackount ez the ockashen seemd to demand. The Deekin wuz there, and I beleve every white male citizen uv the Corners wuz in his seat afore the glad peal uv the bell hed ceast pealin. I assoomd the chair, and in a few joodishus remarks stated the objeck uv the meetin. Noo York, I remarkt, hed spoken, and Noo Gersey, the blessed state uv which I hed the honor to be a native hed returned to her first love. I was not now ashamed to own that I wuz a native uv Noo Gersey. I am proud uv it, and wer it not for the fack that I owe nearly half uv he citizens, in sums rangin from half a dollar to eighteen, I wood return there to wunst. But I won't. It wood awaken expectations in ther buzzums wich wood never be fulfilled, and I am too tender hearted, too considerit uv the feelins uv others to lasserate them feelins. I can't properly express my emoshens. Thank heaven, the nigger is ourn. The Northern States hev spoken, and in thunder tones. The Etheopian wuz wunst on the top wave, but wher is he now? Two years ago he wuz needed—but now wher is he? The Ablishnists don't need him no more to fill up ther quotas, they don't need him no more to take ther places in the next draft, and thank the Lord he's the same d—d nigger he allus wuz. The stink of the nigger hez overcome ther gratitude to him; ther good feelin hez been swamped by ther prejudis. The dimocrasy uv the too sections of the yoonion hez rusht into each other's arms, the nigger wuz between em, and consekently is [illegible]. What happiness for Kentucky! The nigger can't go North with the eleckshen returns [illegible] him in the face, and ef he stays here he must stay on our terms. Thank the Lord!"

Deekin Pogram sed that he hedn't felt so good since his first wife died. He felt too good to [illegible], and the brethren wood excuse him ef his remarks [illegible] the brest. (We will I we will I with [illegible] 4 weeks ago, wh[en] I heard from Ohio and Pennsylvany he hed to wunst drawed up a skedule uv the loss that hed been inflicted onto him by the tyrannical edict uv the [illegible], a copy uv wich he wood reed:

[illegible] UNITED STATES UV AMERIKY,
In account with Gabrel Pogram, Dr.

To 1 [illegible], 20 years old	$1,500 00
[illegible]	1,400 00
1 [illegible] Scip 20 [illegible]	1,400 00
[illegible] Peter [illegible]	1,000 00
[illegible] to be number [illegible] pretty krippled and not uv much account [illegible] in his legs and chawd by dogs and [illegible] by bein nocked about the hed and back [illegible] at say 100 dollars each	11,000 00
[illegible] years old [illegible] hair, for wich I hed bin offered $2,500 to go to Noo Orleans	2,500 00
To [illegible] all shades and ages, 12 in [illegible]	6,000 00
[illegible]	$22,000 00

This bill he hed determined to put in, [illegible] this [illegible] he hed bin robed. Last nite he [illegible] the result uv the Noo York and Noo Jersey elections, and he felt that more yet wuz due him from the [illegible] guvernment under wich we are [illegible] to live. He wanted pay, not only for his twenty four thousand dollars' worth of [illegible], but [illegible] [illegible] 1, 1863, to [illegible] be paid to [illegible] (interest [illegible] it, and he wanted it in gold, ez he [illegible] jest as [illegible]

[illegible] his [illegible] he hed a claim on the oppressors. [illegible] the [illegible] for his labor hed got to be [illegible], and [illegible] it any [illegible] But he must get somebody who cood write to [illegible], ez the two farms workt about the same number uv hands, the [illegible] stock [illegible] hed allus kept [illegible] wich accounted for his bein more bald [illegible] than the Deekin.

[illegible] He wanted his niggers. To [illegible] pay wood be to acknowledge [illegible] [illegible] he saw her [illegible] with hed bin married sence they was [illegible] hed purchist ten akers uv ground [illegible] was [illegible] the [illegible] labor hed that time wuz bin [illegible] the [illegible] though they remained in their [illegible]. The ten [illegible] mite [illegible] they hed two children born to em [illegible] if niggers brot eny price, wood do [illegible]

[illegible] the valyoo, and let em stay free. He had arrived at this conclusion after giving the subject matoor [illegible] all [illegible] new.

[illegible] they cood, all do wat they pleased with their money. Troo, the heft uv the proceeds [illegible] went to Pollock for dry goods and [illegible] and sich, but he [illegible] that they wuz [illegible] If so, and they fell and the [illegible] by their white superiors, they [illegible] in time leave the heft uv it at his bar. He had a few uv em under trainin now, and he notist [illegible] than the whites, ez they didn't swaller their rashens and tell him to "jist [illegible] it down."

A [illegible] uv the [illegible] wuz then taken, and a majority voted to fust try to reduce them to their [illegible]; and ef that wuz decided to be impossible [illegible] still better [illegible] demand their full valyoo uv the Government.

"Yes," exclaimed Kernel McPelter, "and for [illegible] there is no better time than now. [illegible] Follow me."

And [illegible] with the entire congregashun piled [illegible] toward the nigger settlement on the [illegible]

Arrivin at the settlement, a consultashun wuz held. It wuz decided that I should advance to [illegible] uv the houses and demand surrender, but I declined. Kernel McPelter volunteered, and we all awaited the result. He knocked at the door uv the first house.

"What d'ye want?" exclaimed a voice.

"I want you," sed the Kernel.

"Wat fur?"

"My friend," sed the Kernel, impressively, "ef I [illegible] your dalist tone your my nigger. Four years ago you was set free, you spose, by [illegible], but we've don away with that. Come forth and give yourself up; you shel, ef you go [illegible], hev your old quarters agin and be [illegible]."

"Go way, white man, and stop your foolin. Dis nigga's in bed."

"[illegible] the doors!" yelled the deekin, "and hev dun with it!" and a rush wuz made.

The doors wuz broke down, and in a minit the nigger and his wife and two children, wuz out in the street, bound, and the kernel hed the furniter packed ready to take to his own house. In the [illegible] time, assaults hed been made on two other houses with rather differens results. Deekin Pogram [illegible] the [illegible] uv a former slave ur his, and wuz disablin by a charge uv shot in his leg, and the infooriated nigger threw open the winder and swore that hed empty tother barrel into the hed uv the first man who came within range. The whole settlement wuz by this time alarmed, and lites sprang up, and we could here the click uv the cocks uv muskits, and the pilin up uv furniter afore the doors. It wuz decided that the attempt to re enslave em be given over for the nite, and carryin the deekin, who wuz weak [illegible] loss uv blood, we made our way to the Corners again.

The result demonstrated to me the impossibility uv the two races livin together in harmony. [illegible] is a natral antagonism between em wich must result inevitably in a war uv races, onless the status uv the two races is fixed by onalterable law. It can't be denied that, so long as they are among us, so long shel we be tempted to subdoo em, and so long will sich sole harrowing scenes as that uv last nite result. Ez I heer the groans uv that prostrated saint, Deekin Pogram, (this is written at his bed side in the intervals uv feedin him likker with a spoon) I feel ez tho I must vindicate my birth by goin out and killin a nigger. Nothin but the oncertainty ez to who wood be killed restrains me. Thank heaven, next year, when Seymour and Pendleton is president, and the unconstitutional acts ur a rump congress is done away with, all this will be fixed. It is this that soothes the deekin and enables him to endoor his sufferins.

PETRODEUM V. NASBY, P. M.,
(Wich is Postmaster.)

AN ELOQUENT REMARK.—General Cass, in the patriotic oration which he delivered at the opening of the Wabash and Erie Canal in Indiana, in 1843, made the following comparison, full of beauty and the force of true eloquence:

"I have stood upon the plain of Marathon, the battlefield of liberty. It is silent and desolate. Neither Greek nor Persian is there to give life and animation to the scene. It is bounded by sterile hills on one side and lashed by the eternal waves of the Ægean sea on the other. But Greek and Persian were there, and that decayed spot was alive with hostile armies, who fought the great fight which rescued Greece from the yoke of Persia. I have stood upon the hill of Zion, the city of Jerusalem, the scene of our Redeemer's sufferings, crucifixion and ascension. But the sceptre has departed from Judea and its glory from the capital of Solomon. The Assyrian, Egyptian, the Turk, and the Crusaders, have passed over the chief place of Israel, and have left it of its power and beauty. In those regions of the East where society passed its infancy it seems to have reached decrepitude. If the associations which the memory of their past glory excites are powerful, they are melancholy. They are without gratification for the present and without hope for the future. But here we are in freshness of youth, and can look forward with rational confidence to ages of progress in all that gives power and pride to man, and dignity to human nature. It is better to look forward to prosperity than back to glory."

HIRAM SMITH'S

Ophthalmic Panacea!

IN BRINGING THE ABOVE-NAMED NEW REMEDY to the notice of the Public, the Proprietor begs to state a few facts in relation to it, as follows:

It originated in [illegible], where the science of Medicine is so thoroughly taught and practised, but owing to the poverty of its discoverer its wonderful properties were not known [illegible] the limited circle of his acquaintance, in which, however, it proved itself absolutely infallible in [illegible] from the eyes.

He [illegible] to this [illegible] his [illegible] with him, but [illegible] to have been indifferent to the propriety of giving it general and wide-spread circulation, and, as [illegible] his native [illegible] only desirous of using it among his friends and neighbors.

The present proprietor was one of [illegible] neighbors, and for many years was a witness to its wonderful efficacy, [illegible] efforts to [illegible] the knowledge of the virtues; finally became himself the possessor of the secret of its preparation.

And now, while he does not deny that he hopes and [illegible] to make, [illegible] by its sale, he must yet lay claim to a [illegible] to benefit his [illegible] by presenting to them a [illegible] and still [illegible] and all experience have failed.

"He wishes it to be understood that it will cure all diseases of the eye, whether of recent or long standing; but its great [illegible] is when applied to old Chronic Cases of long standing, which have resisted every [illegible] which have been, of [illegible]

He makes these [illegible] in this way to give it a trial, and so confident is he of its [illegible] that he instructs all his [illegible] to RETURN THE MONEY IF IT FAILS TO CURE.

It has, within the past year, cured cases of GRANULATED LIDS, INFLAMMATION, &c., of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN and SEVENTEEN YEARS STANDING, evidence of which fact is furnished in the testimony of the following persons, living at and in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, Linn county:

ALEXANDER [illegible] WALKER was cured of inflamed eyes, of nine years standing. Had been treated by eminent physicians during all that time without effect.

Mrs. MONTGOMERY, of Harrisburg, had inflamed eyes for over two years. For one year they were so bad that she could not work. Was finally completely cured by the Ophthalmic [illegible]

E. B. MOORE, [illegible] Firm of [illegible] & Baber, of Harrisburg, had granulated lids for six years.

NATHAN [illegible], had inflamed eyes [illegible]

ROB[illegible] and W. D. PORTER, of Harrisburg; [illegible] of Linn County; G. R. WARD, of [illegible], were all afflicted, more or less severely, with [illegible] and were cured by the Ophthalmic Panacea.

All the above named persons have given lengthy testimonials [illegible] may be seen at the [illegible] office [illegible]

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT!

WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING PURCHASED the "UNION BOOK & JOB PRINTING OFFICE," of T. F. McElroy, propose to issue a Weekly Newspaper at Olympia, W. T., on or about the 1st of December next, to be called THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT.

The paper will be devoted to the Agricultural, Mechanical, Commercial, Mineral, Moral and Political interests of the whole Territory.

In Politics we shall uphold and sustain the Union Principles of the Nation, at the same time reserving the right to be INDEPENDENT on all subjects, that we may be better able to discuss all matters in their true light, and give credit wherever it is due.

We trust our friends will circulate this prospectus generally, and assist us in getting a good list of Subscribers, Advertisements, or Job Work. We also invite correspondence from all sections of the Territory.

THE OLYMPIA TRANSCRIPT will be issued every Saturday, at $3 per annum, in advance.

Hoping to receive a share of public favor, we unfurl our banner to the breeze.

CARD.

DR. BARLOW J. SMITH'S WATER CURE AND Phrenological Institute, 627 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. This is the only Regular Water Cure in Francisco, where all curable diseases are treated without drugs. Dr. Smith was the first to establish a water cure on this coast, based upon the theory and practice of the New York Hydropathic College.

We have a truly healthful boarding place for men, women and children, and our prices are moderate.

The Phrenological organs plainly indicate the diseases to which any person, male or female, is predisposed.

Put this card in your hat, and when you come to San Francisco, call on Dr. Smith. He will give you consultation and a phrenological examination in regard to health. It will cost you nothing and may save you months and years of ill health and "bad luck."

Dr. Smith gives free lectures to gentlemen every Friday evening, on subjects pertaining to health, at his Phrenological Hall, 627 Sacramento Street.

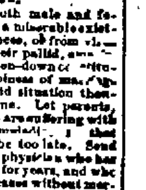
TO THE UNFORTUNATE.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs fully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, [illegible] that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended [illegible], who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of famous physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of [illegible].

Seminal Weakness.

[illegible] the [illegible] of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, [illegible] with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical [illegible], viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, [illegible] in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of [illegible], hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, [illegible] [illegible] and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering with any of these fearful maladies, [illegible] should not [illegible] the [illegible] responsibility [illegible] upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as [illegible], Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be radically cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpleasant medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of case, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 262.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
